Good morning Peter. I will have a look at the issues you have raised and respond to the Director. Due to the nature of your concerns (operational integrity of the office / staff) I am going to be up front with you in advising that you will not be provided a response. In addition, while I will focus on the (purported) facts you have raised; copying Vlad Dzuro in your message is protagonist especially given the level of sarcasm expressed throughout your correspondence. Unfortunately this is yet another indicator of previous issues I have had to discuss with you in the past.

There's a surprise!!!

If you could attend my office when you get in so we can finalise your mid point review.

I am expected just to take this shit and smile, and there is never any explanation or any accountability.

Thanks Dan

And for a bonus point:

Why would I give a flying damn about a "mid point review" when the whole point here is that in the UN, a staff member's Annual Appraisal can contain outright LIES and nobody in management cares?

.... so why should I?
